Scholarship Opportunities for African American Students Highlighted During Black History Month

CHICAGO, Feb. 1, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Fastweb recognizes and celebrates the achievements of African Americans throughout history with a focus on important scholarship opportunities available now for graduate, undergraduate and college bound African American students. Fastweb (www.fastweb.com), is the leading website for scholarship and financial aid information, and a member of the Monster network.

Rewarding scholarship opportunities are available for students pursuing careers in engineering, marketing, public relations, journalism, math, science, economics and more. Eligible students can access and apply today for many scholarships in their chosen field of study.

Fastweb highlights these scholarships in their article, Scholarships for African American Students. Opportunities from the Ventures Scholars Program and the Lagrant Foundation offer between $5,000 and $10,000, as well as the Buick Achievers Scholarship, which offers scholarship amounts as high as $25,000. More scholarship programs can be found in Fastweb's scholarship directory for African American students. This directory outlines new and large scholarships, which is frequently updated as new opportunities become available.

Fastweb.com provides helpful and insightful online resources for all students, helping find ways to fund their education. Resources are available online and always at no charge.
