Pay for School in 2015: Fastweb's Three Steps For Success

Chicago, IL (January 8, 2015) – As 2015 begins, Fastweb (www.fastweb.com), the leading website for scholarship and financial aid information and a member of the Monster.com network, recommends three important areas where students can focus to help their efforts in finding ways to pay for college.

- 1) Find and apply for scholarships. Many 2015 scholarship opportunities are accepting student applications now. In Fastweb's 2015 Scholarships article, there are 15 valuable opportunities outlined that range in value up to $50,000. Programs shown include; $10,000 Teach Seniors Technology Scholarship sponsored by AARP Foundation's Mentor Up Program and the $5,000 DuPont Challenge Science Essay Competition sponsored by DuPont. Students should apply for scholarship opportunities at any time of the year to best take advantage of all opportunities.
- 2) Fill out the FAFSA application. The FAFSA (free application for federal student aid) application for 2015-16, opened on January 1st. Students are urged to fill out the application as early as possible to initiate the federal student aid process. Information on understanding the FAFSA and tips for filling out the application are available on Fastweb's FAFSA FAQ pages. Changes to this year's application have been compiled in the What's New on the 2015-16 FAFSA article.
- 3) Energize Your Scholarship Search. Students with complete and detailed Fastweb profiles attract the best scholarship opportunities for their needs. College bound and existing college students should add all relevant information to their profiles and update them frequently. This will assist Fastweb's system in finding the most relevant matches, and then increase the number of scholarships highlighted for application.
